

George Rowlett and Mary Stapleton

George Rowlett and Mary Stapleton were married on the 5th December 1931 in St Andrew's Church. George was the son of John and Elisa Rowlett from Tansor and Mary was the youngest daughter of Isaac and Mary Stapleton from Cotterstock.

After their marriage they lived in a small cottage in the village and then moved to Vicarage Farm, Cotterstock in 1941. They had two sons and a daughter and were actively involved in church and village life.
